Future pilots key to $345,000 grant

WASHINGTON— Colorado State University is set to receive $345,000 to help attract and train students interested in becoming pilots. The university will use the funds for a summer drone program. “We need to recruit and train the next generation of pilots, yet many young people might not even realize they could pursue this career,” said U.S. Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg. The grant will fund a series of on-campus educational classes that will introduce students to drone operations and teach them to ob-
